Dear Jim,

It was great to finally talk with you last evening. On behalf of the Committee to Eliminate Homophobia and Heterosexism (CEH&H) we are most appreciative for the donation of $700.00 to produce the two day conference entitled 'Setting Out'. The lectures, video presentations, plenary sessions and workshops are all free and open to the University of Rhode Island community as well as the general public.

Presenters include students, staff and faculty and the Keynote speaker will be Professor Denis Sweet of Bates College in Maine whose address is entitled, "Post-Communism, Post-Modernism, and Queer Folk: Who am I? The conference will be held in the Galanti Lounge in the URI Library. This format should provide broadbased coverage and simplify the justification for this expenditure by your committee.

Your donation can be transferred to the URI Foundation account set up for the CEH&H - acct. # 7248. If you can expedite the transfer, it will certainly help; you understand how the bills for staging conferences tend to pile up very quickly.

Once again, please convey our thanks to your committee.

Most Sincerely,
